

Dates to Remember

November 3rd - Clocks go back 1 hour

November 11th-

Remembrance Day, Centre Closed

Universal Children's Day - November 20th we will celebrate the United Nation's Rights of the Child. Right # 28 & 29 Teach us all to read and write and teach us well so we grow up to be the best we can at whatever we wish to do. Take care of our Earth - the flowers, the trees, the rivers, the seas - and teach us how to care for it in our turn. (For Every Child the rights of the child in words and pictures).

Daylight Savings - It is time to turn back our clocks on November 3rd.

Parent Teacher Night - Our next scheduled Parent Teacher meetings will be held on December 4th. Sign up with your child's classroom teacher for available times.

Diwali - Festival of Lights - This Hindu celebration is an important holiday of the year. It symbolizes victory of light over darkness, good over evil and knowledge over ignorance. How to celebrate with your family - put up mini lights to light up the night. Try samosas for a family snack. Attend the South Shore Multi-Cultural Association's Diwali event on November 16th at the Michelin Social Club. Diwali officially starts on November 1st, 2024.

Christmas on the Lahave - Parade of lights will happen on November 30th at 6pm. For more information go to the Town of Bridgewater's website.

Fall is here - The colder weather means it is time for muddy buddy's, splash pants, winter boots, mitts and hats. Make sure your child's name or initials are visible for when clothes do not end up where they should be!

Positive Solutions - This Pyramid Model program is user-friendly training series for parents and caregivers with information on how to promote children's social and emotional skills, understanding challenging behaviour and how to use positive approaches to help children learn appropriate behaviour. If you or a family member are interested in learning more about this program, please see Denise in the Day Care office. We are hoping to offer this program here at the Day Care.
